

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

PUBLISHED DAILY, AT NO. 21 WATER

STREET, BY BEALS & GREENE.—CHARLES GORDON GREENE,

VOLUME IX. NO. 12.

MISCELLANEOUS.

OLD MAIDS.

4 Old Maids; their Varieties, Characters, and Conditions. One vol. 8vo. Smith, Elder, & Co. London.

We believe that the class of voluntary Old Maids includes a larger portion of the sisterhood than the world is willing to believe. The general opinion that all women are husband-hunters, and continue in a state of celibacy, simply because they can find nobody who is willing to adventure marriage with them, may in the main be true, but there are numberless exceptions to it. Listen to the defender of the "order" on this subject; how touchingly and how finely he lays open the deepest recesses of woman's heart! The passage breathes the impassioned spirit of some of Shelley's richest poetry.

"There is, without doubt, implanted in the breast of all women a passionate longing, an almost irrepressible desire, for the society and companionship of man: it is an instinct woven into their moral and physical structure; it is a passion which grows with their growth, and strengthens with their strength; it has mingled with their dreams, and formed the subject of their mid-day reveries.

"The bashful maiden, whose deep-fringed eyelids conceal the liquid lustre of her hazel eyes, seats herself pensively away from observation, perchance, in the deep recesses of some Gothic window, or on some grassy bank, arched overhead by the 'giants of the wood,' and there is a voice and a mystery around her. This is the spirit of love, felt everywhere; it finds a kindred feeling in the breast of the coy maiden, and in luxuriant meditation she lives in the space of one brief hour, a life of love.

But the maiden is not alone in her solitude,—her heart is filled with the image of some ideal being created by her heated fancy; it comes at her bidding, shadowy and unreal, and she steeps her soul in tenderness, and with enamoured accents of delight betrays how profound, how intense and overpowering is the desire to love and be loved. It requires only that some congenial spirit shall approach her, and the whole torrent of her affections will be let loose upon him; one touch, or one look, that stirred the chord of her feelings, would fix her destiny; any incident, however trivial, that developed a correspondent tone of sensibility in one of the opposite sex, would make him the idol of her young heart; and yet this creature, whose very frame is love, lives and dies an Old Maid."

In our estimation, however, the most fascinating picture of Old Maidism is found amongst "Inexplicable Old Maids," although the two stories illustrating "Accidental Old Maids" will probably be more generally liked.

There is one short extract we cannot forbear making, from the second of the stories, descriptive of woman's love in its purest and most intense form.

"I had no thought but of him—I lived only in his presence! to see him was rapture, to be folded in his arms safety and content; I was his body and soul—but Henry was too pure and too noble to triumph over my utter abandonment of self: no word ever escaped his lips, but which I could repeat to you without raising a blush upon your cheek; and no child ever reposed with more conscious security on the bosom of its mother, than I did upon that of Henry: his honor was my safety, for in his presence I forgot every thing but my love—I was even terrified at the vehemence of my own passion, and have hidden my burning face from him, lest my irrepressible emotions might betray him."

Command us, however, to Miss P., the mysterious Old Maid. We know of no piece of humor superior to the account given by herself and her lover, of the "mystery" which broke off their marriage; indeed, the entire conversation is one of the best specimens of colloquial writing in our language, having much of the ease and grace of Horace Walpole. Its great charm to us consists in the beautiful view it gives of human life. Our extract is long, but we are sure it is not misplaced.

"You are a brilliant example of an Old Maid occupying her natural position in society. Is sorrow an inmate of your friend's dwelling, you visit it, and by your sympathy and tender condolence and assistance, rob it of its bitterness; does death snatch away from some fond mother her only and idolised child, your paradise receives her, for your heart tells you that her agonies will be kept alive if she remain on the spot which had been blessed by her little cherub, and though even here she may indulge her anguish, for a mother's grief.

"Fills the eyes up of her absent child, Lies in his bed, walks up and down with her, Puts on his pretty looks, repeats his words, Remembers her of his gracious parts, Staffs out his vacant garments with his form, Thus has she reason to be fond of grief!"

Yet your kind care and quiet consolations come like balm upon her wounded spirit; and when she leaves your beautiful home, gratitude to her benefactress soothly breaks up the current of her woe, and she mingles again in the common affairs of life—sorrowing indeed, but the first keen sting removed. Is any sweet girl pining in thoughtfulness, or brooding over the love spring in her young heart, and robbing her of her fresh beauty, who but Miss P., kind and gentle Miss P., can be selected for a confidante? and thus you restore peace and joy to the anxious maiden.

If a parent is obdurate, or a lover perverse—who but Miss P. is the agent of reconciliation? and thus you are become a "ministering angel" to all within your sphere, diffusing happiness around you, and presenting an example to all your sisterhood, while many of them are ever representing their "beauty and their bliss" as a shadow of the past, and singing with poor Sheridan,

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

When the sun as it rises, or other shines bright, I think how it formerly shone—While others cult blossoms, I find but a blight, And sigh for the days that are gone.

I stray where the dew falls through moonlighted groves, And list to the nightingale's song; The plants still reminds me of long-banished joys, And the sweets of the days that are gone.

Each dew-drop that steals from the dark eye of night, Is a tear for the bliss that has flown, Where others cult blossoms, I find but a blight, And sigh for the days that are gone."

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

Yet your kind care and quiet consolations come like balm upon her wounded spirit; and when she leaves your beautiful home, gratitude to her benefactress soothly breaks up the current of her woe, and she mingles again in the common affairs of life—sorrowing indeed, but the first keen sting removed. Is any sweet girl pining in thoughtfulness, or brooding over the love spring in her young heart, and robbing her of her fresh beauty, who but Miss P., kind and gentle Miss P., can be selected for a confidante? and thus you restore peace and joy to the anxious maiden.

If a parent is obdurate, or a lover perverse—who but Miss P. is the agent of reconciliation? and thus you are become a "ministering angel" to all within your sphere, diffusing happiness around you, and presenting an example to all your sisterhood, while many of them are ever representing their "beauty and their bliss" as a shadow of the past, and singing with poor Sheridan,

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

Yet your kind care and quiet consolations come like balm upon her wounded spirit; and when she leaves your beautiful home, gratitude to her benefactress soothly breaks up the current of her woe, and she mingles again in the common affairs of life—sorrowing indeed, but the first keen sting removed. Is any sweet girl pining in thoughtfulness, or brooding over the love spring in her young heart, and robbing her of her fresh beauty, who but Miss P., kind and gentle Miss P., can be selected for a confidante? and thus you restore peace and joy to the anxious maiden.

If a parent is obdurate, or a lover perverse—who but Miss P. is the agent of reconciliation? and thus you are become a "ministering angel" to all within your sphere, diffusing happiness around you, and presenting an example to all your sisterhood, while many of them are ever representing their "beauty and their bliss" as a shadow of the past, and singing with poor Sheridan,

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

Yet your kind care and quiet consolations come like balm upon her wounded spirit; and when she leaves your beautiful home, gratitude to her benefactress soothly breaks up the current of her woe, and she mingles again in the common affairs of life—sorrowing indeed, but the first keen sting removed. Is any sweet girl pining in thoughtfulness, or brooding over the love spring in her young heart, and robbing her of her fresh beauty, who but Miss P., kind and gentle Miss P., can be selected for a confidante? and thus you restore peace and joy to the anxious maiden.

If a parent is obdurate, or a lover perverse—who but Miss P. is the agent of reconciliation? and thus you are become a "ministering angel" to all within your sphere, diffusing happiness around you, and presenting an example to all your sisterhood, while many of them are ever representing their "beauty and their bliss" as a shadow of the past, and singing with poor Sheridan,

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

Yet your kind care and quiet consolations come like balm upon her wounded spirit; and when she leaves your beautiful home, gratitude to her benefactress soothly breaks up the current of her woe, and she mingles again in the common affairs of life—sorrowing indeed, but the first keen sting removed. Is any sweet girl pining in thoughtfulness, or brooding over the love spring in her young heart, and robbing her of her fresh beauty, who but Miss P., kind and gentle Miss P., can be selected for a confidante? and thus you restore peace and joy to the anxious maiden.

If a parent is obdurate, or a lover perverse—who but Miss P. is the agent of reconciliation? and thus you are become a "ministering angel" to all within your sphere, diffusing happiness around you, and presenting an example to all your sisterhood, while many of them are ever representing their "beauty and their bliss" as a shadow of the past, and singing with poor Sheridan,

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

Yet your kind care and quiet consolations come like balm upon her wounded spirit; and when she leaves your beautiful home, gratitude to her benefactress soothly breaks up the current of her woe, and she mingles again in the common affairs of life—sorrowing indeed, but the first keen sting removed. Is any sweet girl pining in thoughtfulness, or brooding over the love spring in her young heart, and robbing her of her fresh beauty, who but Miss P., kind and gentle Miss P., can be selected for a confidante? and thus you restore peace and joy to the anxious maiden.

If a parent is obdurate, or a lover perverse—who but Miss P. is the agent of reconciliation? and thus you are become a "ministering angel" to all within your sphere, diffusing happiness around you, and presenting an example to all your sisterhood, while many of them are ever representing their "beauty and their bliss" as a shadow of the past, and singing with poor Sheridan,

"No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore, Uncheerful I still wander alone, And, sunk in dejection, for ever deplore The sweets of the days that are gone."

MONDAY

MORNING, MAY 25, 1835.

PRICE $6

MISCELLANEOUS.

OLD MAIDS.

4 Old Maids; their Varieties, Characters, and Conditions. One vol. 8vo. Smith, Elder, & Co. London.

We believe that the class of voluntary Old Maids includes a larger portion of the sisterhood than the world is willing to believe. The general opinion that all women are husband-hunters, and continue in a state of celibacy, simply because they can find nobody who is willing to adventure marriage with them, may in the main be true, but there are numberless exceptions to it. Listen to the defender of the "order" on this subject; how touchingly and how finely he lays open the deepest recesses of woman's heart! The passage breathes the impassioned spirit of some of Shelley's richest poetry.

"There is, without doubt, implanted in the breast of all women a passionate longing, an almost irrepressible desire, for the society and companionship of man: it is an instinct woven into their moral and physical structure; it is a passion which grows with their growth, and strengthens with their strength; it has mingled with their dreams, and formed the subject of their mid-day reveries.

"The bashful maiden, whose deep-fringed eyelids conceal the liquid lustre of her hazel eyes, seats herself pensively away from observation, perchance, in the deep recesses of some Gothic window, or on some grassy bank, arched overhead by the 'giants of the wood,' and there is a voice and a mystery around her. This is the spirit of love, felt everywhere; it finds a kindred feeling in the breast of the coy maiden, and in luxuriant meditation she lives in the space of one brief hour, a life of love.

But the maiden is not alone in her solitude,—her heart is filled with the image of some ideal being created by her heated fancy; it comes at her bidding, shadowy and unreal, and she steeps her soul in tenderness, and with enamoured accents of delight betrays how profound, how intense and overpowering is the desire to love and be loved. It requires only that some congenial spirit shall approach her, and the whole torrent of her affections will be let loose upon him; one touch, or one look, that stirred the chord of her feelings, would fix her destiny; any incident, however trivial, that developed a correspondent tone of sensibility in one of the opposite sex, would make him the idol of her young heart; and yet this creature, whose very frame is love, lives and dies an Old Maid."

At the same place may be had the following medicines:—Bell's Eye Water, for weeping or weak eyes, 2s per vial; Tooth Paste, a most excellent article for preserving the enamel of the teeth, 2s per box; Bilious Pills, an invaluable medicine, and produces no griping whatever, 3s per box. east 35 apartments at 33 Milk street, tenders his services to the inhabitants of Boston and its vicinity. Having been Forty Years in the practice of physic both in Europe and America, he flatters himself of being able to give general satisfaction.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. T. BELL, having taken

For the last fifteen years he has adopted the improved vegetable medicine system—the utility of this system, over every other is sufficiently tested in every section of the Union. He will undertake the following disorders where there is a prospect of cure: viscera—asthma—coughs of ever so long standing—rheumatism—liver complaints—urinary disorders—cysts—varicose veins—piles and jaundice.

N. B.—As this Flushing will come as low as bricks for paving the side walks, those who are in the building line are particularly invited to call at the Bolton Company Flag Yard, Haverhill street, where the most diligent attention will be paid to their orders.

NOTICE TO MERCHANTS, BUILDERS, &C.

COMPANY having experienced such great encouragement for the sale of their Flags in this city within the last three years, and that the demand is still increasing, they were induced to open an establishment in Haverhill street, between the city Hall and Scales and Warren Bridge, where they will have constantly for sale a large stock of the best quality and of various sizes, suitable for Side Walks, Kitchen Flagging, Coping, Garden Walks, Side Stones, for Footpaths, &c, and will be sold much lower than any other person in this city.

And further, as it is the intention of the Agent to have always experienced workmen employed in his yard, to be sent to the city to construct and do all necessary work in this city, and the neighboring towns, he will be enabled to execute any orders he may be favored with in a workmanlike manner and on more reasonable terms than any other person in this city.

N. B.—As this Flushing will come as low as bricks for paving the side walks, those who are in the building line are particularly invited to call at the Bolton Company Flag Yard, Haverhill street, where the most diligent attention will be paid to their orders.

M. KAVANAGH, Agent.

2a epdm

epdm

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. T. BELL, having taken

apartments at 33 Milk street, tenders his services to the inhabitants of Boston and its vicinity. Having been Forty Years in the practice of physic both in Europe and America, he flatters himself of being able to give general satisfaction.

For the last fifteen years he has adopted the improved vegetable medicine system—the utility of this system, over every other is sufficiently tested in every section of the Union. He will undertake the following disorders where there is a prospect of cure: viscera—asthma—coughs of ever so long standing—rheumatism—liver complaints—urinary disorders—cysts—varicose veins—piles and jaundice.

N. B.—Also a certain complaint, without the use of mercury that destroy the bowels of thousands. People of either sex, laboring under this complaint, may rely upon the strictest honor and secrecy.

At the same place may be had the following medicines:—Bell's Eye Water, for weeping or weak eyes, 2s per vial; Tooth Paste, a most excellent article for preserving the enamel of the teeth, 2s per box; Bilious Pills, an invaluable medicine, and produces no griping whatever, 3s per box. east 35 apartments at 33 Milk street, tenders his services to the inhabitants of Boston and its vicinity. Having been Forty Years in the practice of physic both in Europe and America, he flatters himself of being able to give general satisfaction.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. T. BELL, having taken

For the last fifteen years he has adopted the improved vegetable medicine system—the utility of this system, over every other is sufficiently tested in every section of the Union. He will undertake the following disorders where there is a prospect of cure: viscera—asthma—coughs of ever so long standing—rheumatism—liver complaints—urinary disorders—cysts—varicose veins—piles and jaundice.

N. B.—Also a certain complaint, without the use of mercury that destroy the bowels of thousands. People of either sex, laboring under this complaint, may rely upon the strictest honor and secrecy.

At the same place may be had the following medicines:—Bell's Eye Water, for weeping or weak eyes, 2s per vial; Tooth Paste, a most excellent article for preserving the enamel of the teeth, 2s per box; Bilious Pills, an invaluable medicine, and produces no griping whatever, 3s per box. east 35 apartments at 33 Milk street, tenders his services to the inhabitants of Boston and its vicinity. Having been Forty Years in the practice of physic both in Europe and America, he flatters himself of being able to give general satisfaction.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. T. BELL, having taken

For the last fifteen years he has adopted the improved vegetable medicine system—the utility of this system, over every other is sufficiently tested in every section of the Union. He will undertake the following disorders where there is a prospect of cure: viscera—asthma—coughs of ever so long standing—rheumatism—liver complaints—urinary disorders—cysts—varicose veins—piles and jaundice.

N. B.—Also a certain complaint, without the use of mercury that destroy the bowels of thousands. People of either sex, laboring under this complaint, may rely upon the strictest honor and secrecy.

At the same place may be had the following medicines:—Bell's Eye Water, for weeping or weak eyes, 2s per vial; Tooth Paste, a most excellent article for preserving the enamel of the teeth, 2s per box; Bilious Pills, an invaluable medicine, and produces no griping whatever, 3s per box. east 35 apartments at 33 Milk street, tenders his services to the inhabitants of Boston and its vicinity. Having been Forty Years in the practice of physic both in Europe and America, he flatters himself of being able to give general satisfaction.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. T. BELL, having taken

For the last fifteen years he has adopted the improved vegetable medicine system—the utility of this system, over every other is sufficiently tested in every section of the Union. He will undertake the following disorders where there is a prospect of cure: viscera—asthma—coughs of ever so long standing—rheumatism—liver complaints—urinary disorders—cysts—varicose veins—piles and jaundice.

N. B.—Also a certain complaint, without the use of mercury that destroy the bowels of thousands. People of either sex, laboring under this complaint, may rely upon the strictest honor and secrecy.

At the same place may be had the following medicines:—Bell's Eye Water, for weeping or weak eyes, 2s per vial; Tooth Paste, a most excellent article for preserving the enamel of the teeth, 2s per box; Bilious Pills, an invaluable medicine, and produces no griping whatever, 3s per box. east 35

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. T. BELL, having taken

</

FOR CALCUTTA.

The ship MOUNT VERNON, William A. Brown, Supercargo, will sail for the above port on the 1st of June, and return direct to Boston. For freight or passage, apply to WILLIAM GODDARD & SON, No. 43 Central wharf. epstf may 14

FOR NEW-ORLEANS—PACKET LINE.

FIRST VESSEL.—ON THURSDAY.
The compact brig Export, J. Storer, master, is loading at Central wharf, having most of her freight engaged, and going on board, will sail as above on Thursday next—and take steerage at the Balize. For freight, cabin or steerage passage, apply to m25 184p S. R. Allen, 110 Milk street.

SCHOONER IVANHOE.

For sale, if immediately applied for, the superfast sailing and cargo fastened. SCHOONER IVANHOE, 75 tons Register, high deck, built in 1835, of best materials, and in the most thorough manner, has two chains and anchors, sails and rigging in good order, is in every respect well found, and now in complete order for a voyage—apply to F. E. WHITE, 22 Long wharf. m25

FOR SALE OR TO BE LET—on a lease; a three story brick house, containing a good cellar, kitchen, 2 parlors, 5 chambers, and an excellent well of water. The house is in excellent repair, and is situated on Fourth street, South Boston, near the Bank, and will be sold or leased low.

Also—a Stable, attached to the above house, admirably calculated for a Livry Stable. The whole contains about 4000 feet laid. Apply on the premises, or to D. F. HUNTING, No 17 (Grindstone) Commercial wharf. istf m25

HOUSE FOR SALE IN LOWELL.—A House situated in Lowell street, in the town of Lowell, containing eight Rooms, and two Cellar Kitchens; the Land attached, which it stands, measures about 173 feet, and rents now for $250 per annum. Said House will be sold at auction on the first Monday in June, at 3 P. M., if not previously sold at private sale. Apply to Mr. N. W. RYAN, Lowell, or to the subscriber, at Eastbridge ridge, WILLIAM GLEASON. epstf may 19

FOR SALE.—House No 67 Summer street, the residence of R. S. FAY, together with the stable in rear. Also, such of the furniture, carpets, curtains, glasses, tables, &c., originally purchased for and fitted to the house as the purchaser may desire, which are nearly new and in good order. Possession can be given at short notice—apply to R. S. FAY, 20 Court street, or to JOHN THAYER, 49 State st. istf m15

FOR SALE.—A new genteel brick House, third in a block of five, on Shawmut street, leading from Pleasant to Court street, containing a good cellar, kitchen, with pump and rain water, washroom, good yard, parlors with folding doors, china closet; four chambers; attic, finished. For further particulars and terms enquire of ADIN HALL, & Exchange st. a25

LAFAYETTE FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY.—The President and Director of the LAFAYETTE FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY IN MARBLEHEAD, give notice that the amount of the Capital stock of said Company is

$1,000,000.

One half of which is paid in; and that they will make Insurance on Vessels, Property and Freight; on Money lent; on Botany and Responsibility; on Building's and Merchandise against the hazard of FIRE, to any amount not exceeding FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

J. CHIN CANDLER, Jr., President. SPARKEHEAD, May 23, 1835—epstf

FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE, TIDE COMMONWEALTH INSURANCE COMPANY—hereby give notice, that their Capital Stock now invested according to law, is that they continue to insure on Marine risks, against the perils of the SEA—and on buildings and merchandise, against the hazard of FIRE, not exceeding $20,000 on any one risk.

$300,000.

JOHN K. SIMPSON, President, JOHN STEVENS, Secretary. istf my 4

NEW BOOKS lately received at the South End Book store.—Thirty Years' Correspondence between Bishop Jebb and Alex. Knox, Esq., 2 vols. 8vo.

Helion's Pilgrimage to Jerusalem—a Picture of Judaism. Sprague's Letters on Christian Intercourse.

Mackish on Drunkenness. Marais, on recollections of a beloved sister—by Rev A. Read.

No Fiction—new edition—by J. Social Choir, by George Kinde. Language of Flowers, with colored engravings. Review of Fanny Kemble's Journal.

Orders for books in all departments of literature respectively solicited by JAMES B. DOW, 362 Washington st. m25

FEMALE HORSE THIEF!—A Lady, about 30 years of age, calling herself Lavinia Woods, hired a Horse and Chaise of the subscriber on the 12th inst, to go to Andover Mass. and return the same evening or next morning, and has not since been heard from. She is a short, modest looking woman, with at the time a dark dress and straw bonnet trimmed with black. The horse stout built, short squared tail, carries her head high. The chaise second handed, black, trimmed with blue, trimming in white, mounted, with an iron railing above the dasher; harness silver mounted, nearly new. Whoever will return the property or secure the villainess so that justice may be done, shall be sufficiently rewarded.

D. KIMBALL. spstf

SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER.—50,000 feet Southern Pine Lumber, consisting of 2, 2½, 3 and 4 inch Plank—3½ inch Wash and Deck do—for sale by MWSWIS A. W. GRANT, Russia wharf.

CIDER.—100 barrels Refined Cider, for sale by HOLBROOK & MOODY, No 28 Ann st.

Also, a quantity of bottled Cider.

Cider delivered to any part of the city free from expense. m25 M&TH6W

PORTFOLIOS—a large assortment, comprising a dozen different varieties—just received by JAMES B. DOW, 362 Washington st. m25

COPARTNERSHIP NOTICE.—The subscribers having connected themselves in business with the firm of KEOGH & MULLEN, Merchant Tailors, would inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken store No 70 Congress st, Boston, where they will keep, constantly on hand a good assortment of Broadcloths, Cassimere, and Vestings, which they will make to order in a style not to be surpassed in any establishment in the city, and on the most reasonable terms for cash. epstf a24

DISSOLUTION.—The Copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers, under the firm of NEVERS & FRENCH, is by mutual consent dissolved. The unsettled affairs of the concern will be settled by E. W. NEVERS, at Ous's wharf, or MOSES FRENCH, Jr, at Maine wharf—at either place the former customers and the public will be supplied with Wool and Coal as heretofore.

EDENR. W. NEVERS, MOSES FRENCH, Jr.

HATS, &c.—1000 lbs Paris Green—200 do French do—5 casks Verdigris—300 lbs Prussia Blue, No 1 and 2—600 lbs Chrome Green—200 lbs do Yellow—10 casks Vermillion—10 tons dry and ground White Lead—25 lbs Linseed Oil—with a large assortment of Drugs and Dye Stuffs. For sale low by F. S. & N. CARRUTH, No 4 Long wharf. m30 Sawisw

LOST.—A dark Bay Horse and Yellow Wagon, containing 2 rolls of leather, two trucks &c.—supposed to be in the neighborhood of South Boston or Roxbury. Whoever will return the above Horse and Wagon to the subscriber shall be suitably rewarded, and all charges paid.

Randolph May 22, 1835. Sis. ABRAM DYER, Jr.

KENTUCKY TOBACCO, &c.—350 bales Kentucky Tobacco, a prime article for shipping—3000 zeroins Havas do, various qualities—for sale by JOHN CLARK, Jr. No 30 Long wharf. epstf m18

STORE TO LET.—A large convenient store and cellar at the head of Fort Hill wharf, suitable for most any kind of business—apply to PETER DUNBAR, No 16 Custom House street. eosis m12

LIQUOR JUICE.—5 Casks prime Lime Juice, for sale by HENSHAW & CO. 28, Granite stores Commercial Wharf. 2aw6w. may 5

BOARD—for a gentleman and his wife and two single gentlemen, can be obtained at the south part of the city, in a healthy situation. Inquire at this office. epstf m14

A YOUNG MAN wants a situation to learn the tailor's trade—apply at 3 Brattle square. m25

A NUMBER OF GENTLEMEN can be accommodated with good board on reasonable terms, by applying to 3 Brattle square. m25

WANTED—a young man in a private family, also a young man in a hotel out of town—apply at 3 Brattle square. m25

TREMONT THEATRE.

TIME of rising the curtain is altered to 7½ o'clock.

Farewell Benefit of Mademoiselle Celeste.

THIS EVENING, May 25,

Will be performed, 1st time in Boston, the Drama, of MARIE DE MONTVILLE.

Marie de Montville, (a French lady, assuming the characters of Hugo Chevalier, a Puritan Officer and De Montville, Mademoiselle Celeste

The whole to conclude with the WIZARD SKIFF!

Alexa, Mademoiselle Celeste

Agatha, Miss Peby

Mr Markham, Miss Kerr

Cicely, Miss Peby

Mr F. S. Hill, Miss Kerr

Elvira, Mrs Peby

Cora, Miss Kerr

THE PROMISSORY NOTE.

Fred Schamer, Mr F. S. Hill

Mr Markham, F. S. Hill

Cicely, Miss Kerr

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

Piarr, Mr Peby

Alonzo, Houp

Elvira, F. S. Hill

Cora, Mrs Peby

THE WHOLE to conclude with the laughable Farce of the

PIZZARDO!

Or—The Death of Rolla

&lt;p

